One day Bob and his friends went into the mountains. They put up their tents and then rode off to a forest to see how the trees were growing. In the afternoon when they reached a red rock about 10 kilometres from their camp, it started to snow. Soon Bob could not find the road. Bob knew there were two roads. One road went to the camp, and the other went to his house. But all there was white snow on the ground. How could he take his friends back to the camp? Bob had an idea. The horses! Let the horses take them back! But what would happen if the horses took the road to his house? That would be a trip of 35 kilometres in such cold weather! They rode on and on. At last the horses stopped. Where were they? Bob looked around. What was that under the tree? It was one of their tents!

16. What did Bob go to the mountains to do?

17. How far was the red rock from the camp?

18. Where did Bob want to go back on a horse?

19. Why did the horses stop?

20. When did the story happen?

W: Hi, Andy. Do you love living with an American family?

M: Oh, hi. I love it very much. Oh, except we have new neighbours.

W: Really? What're they like?

M: Well, it was quite funny — really. The son was in the garden, so I went to introduce myself and talk to him over the fence. He seemed really nice and seemed interested in being my friend. He asked me lots of questions — you know the kind: what's your name, how old are you, that kind of thing.

W: So, what's so funny about that?

M: Well, he went back into his house and I continued playing basketball. Then he came out again and asked me all the same questions again!

W: That's strange. What did you say?

M: Well, I was polite and just answered him all over again. But I was talking to two different boys! I thought there was only one but then I saw them both in the garden together a few days later. They are twins, and they look the same!

W: Can you tell who is who?

M: No, not at all! I can't see any differences.

Mr Black worked in a restaurant for 10 years, but he was still poor. One day, something was wrong with his eyes. He had to see a doctor. Five minutes later he had to pay the doctor 20 dollars. He thought it was easy for a doctor to make money, so he went to a small town to open a hospital. At first, people there knew nothing about him and they came to see him. But soon when they found he could not treat them, very few people came. One evening he heard someone knocking at his door. He quickly opened the door and found a stranger who looked tired and sick. Mr Black gave the man some medicine and he left. The next day he was told that the stranger got even worse and could not get up. He thought that it was time for him to close the hospital.

IV. 听短文,选择正确答案。短文读两遍。

Hello, listeners. Welcome to Newton Hospital Radio. Before our music programme at four, I'm going to talk about some of our hospital rules again. The hospital can hold 800 patients. There're eight beds in each ward. The visiting hours are in the afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 and in the evening from 7:00 to 8:00. But remember only two people can see you at the same time. Sorry about that, but you can see what would happen if we didn't have these rules. The other rules are about our hours. We start quite early — you might not be used to that. We wake you up at 6:00. You can see the no smoking sign — we don't allow smoking in the wards. I'm sure you understand why. However, if you do need to smoke, there are some smoking rooms where it is allowed. It's our own hospital radio station, wishing you to get well soon.

V. 听短文,根据短文内容填空。短文读两遍。

Last Wednesday, Mr Chen took his class to the Space Museum. There were many things about space there. First, the children saw a film about space travel.

They saw how this space shuttle took off into space and later landed on earth again. It was very exciting and the children felt they were travelling in space themselves. After the film, Mr Chen took them to see some models of rockets and the space shuttle. The models looked very real, but they were much smaller. Then the children saw some moon rocks.

Before the children left, they also watched a video show about people living and working in a space lab. The people could stay there for months.

M: In the whole world?

W: Yes, it's reported that the world population will reach 9,200,000,000 by 2050.

M: Why does the population increase so fast?

W: Because people in the world can live much longer than before.

M: I see. And there are still more and more babies born every year.

IV. 听短文,选择正确答案。短文读两遍。

Many changes will take place in the 21st century. The population is growing fast. There will be more and more people in the world and most of them will live longer than before. People will work fewer hours than they did in the 20th century, and they will have more free time for sports and travelling. Travelling will be much cheaper and easier. And more people will go to other countries for the holidays. More land will be used for buildings, new towns and houses. Then there will be less room for cows and sheep, so meat will be more expensive. Maybe no one will eat it every day. Instead, they eat more vegetables and fruit. Hard work will be done by robots, and there will be at least one in every home. Because of this, many people won't have much work to do.

V. 听独白,选择正确答案,完成信息记录表。独白读两遍。

IV. 听短文和问题,选择正确答案。短文和问题读两遍。

Mrs Sawyer was 82 but healthy. She often worked in the garden and cleaned the house. She never thought that she should be taken care of by others. She had a small car, and she always drove to the shops. She thought driving a car was good for her mind and eyes. She didn't drive fast because she was old. Sometimes her grandchildren said to her, "Please don't drive, Grandmother. We can take you to the shops." But she always said, "No, I like driving. I began to drive 50 years ago, and I can go to the shops now." Last Saturday she stopped her car at the traffic lights because they were red, and then she couldn't start her car again. A policeman came and said to her kindly, "Good morning, Madam. Don't you like any of our colours today?"

16. What did Mrs Sawyer often do?

17. Why did Mrs Sawyer always drive to the shops?

18. Why didn't Mrs Sawyer drive fast?

19. When did Mrs Sawyer begin to drive?

20. What did Mrs Sawyer's grandchildren want her to do?

I'm sorry I missed your call. Our volleyball club meets once a week, every Wednesday evening. Matches are sometimes held on Sunday morning, but they are just for our team players. Our meetings begin at 8 o'clock, and finish at 10 o'clock. You can get home in time for the 10:30 sports programme on television. We meet in the Young Hall, in Park Street, behind the High Road. Now it's a little cold. You'd better bring a coat to put on after the training. I hope this answers all your questions.

What was the first invention for sport? It was not running or jumping, but the ball. In ancient Egypt, throwing stones was children's favourite game. But stones could hurt people. Looking for something less dangerous to throw, the Egyptians created the first ball. At first, balls were made of grass or leaves held together by rope. Later they were made of animals' skin filled with feathers or other soft things. The Egyptians played balls for training rather than for fun. They thought playing balls was a useful way to train young people.
